

REPORT IS SAID TO BE AFTER LOUISVILLE

Louisville Iron and Steel Plant
Apparently Is Not Up to Expectations.

COMMISSIONERS RETURN WILL PRESENT THEIR FINDINGS TO COMMERCIAL CLUB.

(Special to The Herald.)
Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6.—The two commissioners from Salt Lake who came here to inspect the iron and steel plant preliminary to having it moved to Salt Lake spent one day in Louisville yesterday inspecting the plant they did not seem satisfied with it, and the impression here is that they will report in favor of having it moved to the west. The plant formerly belonged to the Louisville Iron Works company, and has been idle for about four years. It was bought in 1904 by Messrs. Herzog and Todd.

It is improbable that the iron and steel plant in Louisville, Ky., which John E. Jones of Waukegan, Wis., proposes to move to Salt Lake, will be brought here. Joseph A. Silver of the Silver Bros. Iron Works company, who represented the plant as an expert representing the Commercial club, the Manufacturers and Merchants' association and the Real Estate association, returned from his trip yesterday afternoon and will report today to W. J. Halloran, president of the Commercial club; George S. McAllister, president of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association, and Edward F. Colborn, president of the Salt Lake Real Estate association. The report, it is understood, will be unfavorable to Mr. Jones' project.

Mr. Jones wanted the business men of Salt Lake to assist in financing a company to pay $100,000 for the Louisville plant and start an iron and steel industry here. Mr. Silver and Lon J. Haddock, secretary of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association, who accompanied him, arrived in Salt Lake about 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Denver. Mr. Silver was reticent about the result of his trip. "Before discussing what I saw," said he, "I wish to make my report to Mr. Halloran and the others interested."

Mr. Silver was reticent about the report from Louisville that he was not favorably impressed with the plant there. "After leaving Louisville," he said, "we saw some up-to-date plants. We also saw some plants that were not up to date. But I would prefer to make my report before discussing the merits of the various plants examined."

Failed to Get Telegrams.
Messrs. Silver and Haddock did not get the telegrams from George S. McAllister, president of the M. & M. association, saying that they visit Des Moines and investigate municipal government under the new plan and that they make an inquiry into merchants' licenses in other cities.

"As we did not get Mr. McAllister's messages," said Lon J. Haddock, "we did not visit Des Moines on our way back. I am sorry, as the Des Moines plan of city government is of considerable interest and subject of inquiry. But I made some investigation into the license problem. Merchants are not compelled to pay licenses in Chicago. Denver, but manufacturers pay licenses in Chicago. My observations in other cities convinced me that Salt Lake has much the advantage in the matter of commercial organizations. No other city has a body quite like our own. The Des Moines plan is a good one, but I doubt that they are as thoroughly representative of all interests, working harmoniously together, as the Salt Lake Commercial club."

"But we need more concerted effort to bring settlers into the territory in which Salt Lake is the business and banking center. The prospect of our independence, and future, depend upon the growth of the surrounding districts. I think that what has been overlooked in the past has been due to the rush of progress here. We have had too many things to look after. In other places they have worked with more attention to some details because there was less of this rapid growth which we see in Salt Lake and Salt Lake's territory."

Denver Invites Settlers.
"Denver, which has not a hundredth part of the natural resources in its territory that Salt Lake can claim, is making a strong bid for settlers. They are streaming into that city every day. People ought to come to Utah, where the possibilities for the young man of brains and energy are greater. They would come if added efforts were made to bring them here. We ought to send a commission to Chicago in the fall, when the movement of homeseekers begins, to bring to the attention of those starting west the advantages of the district around Salt Lake. In the cities we visited I found that great attention is being paid to efforts to make the cities beautiful and attractive to newcomers. Denver has fourteen parks, one of them covering 40 acres. Salt Lake should open more parks. The Emery park would be a good beginning, but we want parks in all sections. As the city grows the need of these parks will become more and more apparent."

"As the city spreads out the opening of the proposed park below Liberty park will be an important move. One thing in Louisville which impressed me was the extreme courtesy of the people there. If a man, in passing through the streets, brushed against the arm of a woman, he would raise his hat and apologize. It was a pleasant thing to see—this courtesy and gentle bearing prevailing in a large city."

"In Chicago much interest was manifested in the progress that is being made in Salt Lake. I found that all the business men I met had a good impression of this city."

Mr. Haddock was asked by the Chicago Association of Commerce to write an article concerning Salt Lake for a magazine which the association issues at intervals. The Manufacturers' association of Denver is soon to make a trip through the west. A stop will be made at Salt Lake so that business men here may join the Denver party, and then the excursion train will go on to California.

While away Messrs. Haddock and Silver visited Chicago, Joliet, Denver, Louisville and other cities. Iron and steel plants were inspected in all these places.

JANITOR OF CITY AND COUNTY BUILDING ISSUES A REPRIEVE FOR STRAW HAT

Whereas, The sun's rays have continued to beat with extreme fervor upon both the just and the unjust of Salt Lake; and
Whereas, The thermometer continues to point to a figure which renders the wearing of heavy and superfluous garments not only deleterious to personal comfort but menacing to the public disposition; and
Whereas, The precarious condition of public credit renders the securing of new and expensive fall headgear a matter of uncertainty and difficulty.

Be it known, that I, Janitor of the city the country any real reforms. The platform is, in fact, a contract signed and sealed, between the Republican party and the exploiting interests guaranteeing them nothing shall be done to free the people from graft and extortion. It is an admission that the money to carry on the campaign is to be drawn from the system, and that means that the system will be in control after the election.

"The system is run on these principles, and when it puts up its money to carry an election, it is sure to be quite careful about the security taken."

"Emergency" Currency Law.
A resume of the currency law passed by the last congress is given, with comment, in part, as follows:
"Here is a bill designed to prevent panics like that which swept over the land last fall. Nowhere in the bill do you find the slightest mention of the cause of it and of all other panics, the distrust of the bank depositors. If the situation were not so serious, this bill would be the most colossal joke of the century. The bill neither gives the elastic currency of the plan nor the directing action of the Democratic plan. The machinery for issuing the emergency currency is so roundabout that half a dozen panics could be well under way before the medium could get into circulation. When the United States government lends its name to an enterprise the least it can do is to insure that every one dealing with that enterprise gets fair play. If the government is to co-operate in the banking business, then the government must secure the bank depositors. If this is not done, then the government should withdraw and meddle no more with banks than with grocery stores."

Imperialism.
On "Imperialism" the manual says: "The Democratic party has a plan. The Republican party has no plan. It dares to reveal. The Democratic party deals frankly with the subject. The Republican party is neither candid with the American people nor with the Philippines. The brevity and ambiguity of the Republican platform indicates a desire to keep the subject of the Philippines out of the campaign. Mr. Taft takes the privilege of amending his platform on this subject by introducing a matter which cannot be found in the platform, or by any reasonable construction be adduced from it. The platform says nothing about independence, while Secretary Taft holds out the prospect of independence, for so that it is unlikely that the people will be ready for independence before two generations must mean that they will have it. In his attempt to defend the holding of the Philippines he has laid himself open to just criticism by conceding the cost of imperialism. The Democratic platform presents the only solution consistent with our traditions and our ideals. It is to declare the nation's intention at once: this the Republican party has never done. When the Philippines know that they are to have independence as soon as a stable government is established they will join us the more heartily in hastening the day of their independence, and that independence will be easily preserved because the great nations of the world will be willing enough to join in the neutralization of the islands."

MARY MURPHY MILITANT.
Expresses Her Contempt for Dry Sunday by Getting Fighting Jag.
Demon Rum failed to cheer Mary Murphy yesterday afternoon. In spite of assistance application on Mary's part, Mary became disgusted with this shallow and artificial world, and not satisfied with expressing her disapprobation vocally, she started to attack all the passers-by within reach at the corner of West Temple and Second South streets.

A small detachment of the Fifteenth infantry attempted to subdue Mary, but were routed by a clever exhibition of broadsword play from Mary, armed with the umbrella, snatched from a woman who was passing. Policeman Phillips engaged Mary in combat until the arrival of the patrol wagon. Mary's engine was still sparking brightly when the jail door clanged behind her.

AMERICAN FORK NOTES.
American Fork, Sept. 6.—The public schools of this place will open tomorrow morning for the coming season. It is expected that the largest number of children in the history of the district will be present. The following corps of teachers will be in their places in the morning to assume their duties for the coming year: District supervisor, Osmon Justeson; supervisor of music, Miss Laura Perkins; principal high school, F. Soule; principal Forbes school, eighth grade, B. W. Black; principal Hartington school, fourth grade, Clara Arnold; seventh grade, W. D. Stewart and Mr. Ward; sixth grade, George Larner and Miss Thompson; fifth grade, Laura Callister and Margaret Cook; fourth grade, Josie Greenwood and Blanch Cranford; first grade, Mary Adams and Kate Owens; beginners, Marie Christensen and May Christensen.

The high school faculty will be as follows: O. Justeson, principal; Louis Owen, W. D. Stewart, George Larner, Mr. Ward and Mary Cropper.

The shed of Frank Jones in the Fourth ward was destroyed by fire yesterday. Small boys and matches were the cause.

Mrs. C. S. Lively and children of LaVeta Pass, Colo., are visiting in American Fork for a short time.

COMBERS GOES AFTER CANNON

Labor Leader Invades the District of the House
Czar Today.

Danville, Ill., Sept. 6.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will invade the Eighteenth congressional district of Illinois Monday for the avowed purpose of bringing about the defeat of Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, who is making his nineteenth campaign for a seat in the house of congress from the territory indicated.

First Address Today.
Mr. Gompers is billed to make his first address at the Labor day celebration here tomorrow. Two years ago he declared his intention of seeking the speaker's defeat, and announced that he would make a number of speeches for the Democratic candidate, who opposed Mr. Cannon. However, Mr. Gompers made only one or two speeches in the outskirts of the district, failing to appear in Danville, where the heaviest labor vote of Mr. Cannon's district is polled, and the speaker was re-elected by the largest majority he has had in eighteen campaigns with the exception of the vote cast for him four years ago, on the occasion of the Roosevelt landslide.

Depends Upon the Miners.
In this county, Vermillion, is polled the heaviest labor vote of the entire district, some 5,000 of 6,000 of these laboring men being employed in the coal mines situated near Danville, and it is in this county that Speaker Cannon receives his heaviest majority. In the next largest labor settlement, or county Mr. Cannon is given his next heaviest majority, and so on down to Edgar county, in which but few union laborers reside and which is populated almost entirely by farmers, where the speaker receives his lightest majority.

Despite the activity which Mr. Gompers promises in his declaration that he will attempt to defeat the speaker by lining up the labor vote against him, Mr. Cannon is wholly confident of re-election.

Automobile Club Says It Is Necessary to Make Examples of Notorious Speedsters.

Concerning its attitude in favor of the putting an end to "scorching" by automobilists, and other matters, the Salt Lake Automobile club has issued the following statement:

"The action of the officers of the Salt Lake Auto club in swearing to the warrant for the arrest of the chauffeur, Miller, has been criticised on several occasions, but it should be understood that the club is not in the least in the way of the public's right to speed. They are simply following up their intention of putting a stop to reckless driving in the public highways."

In the past numerous moves to repress speeding have been made, but most of these attempts to deprive a serious influence with the legislature with regard to automobile legislation and the "good habits" of the public have been nullified by the choice of either acquiescence in reckless speeding on public roads or coming out squarely in favor of excessive use of the highways. No middle course is possible.

"Let this insane speeding stop and the good roads movement go on. Let the motorist be made to feel that the law is for the use of motorists and all people using the highway. Let the motorist be made to feel that the law is for the use of motorists and all people using the highway. THE HERALD'S CONTEST

In yesterday's Sunday Herald, to comply with a published promise, only a preliminary announcement was made of a great plan to interest thousands of newspaper patrons in voting for popular and energetic men and women of Salt Lake City and adjacent territory. A list of very valuable prizes, aggregating thousands of dollars in value, is being prepared. These prizes are the most expensive luxuries ever offered by a Salt Lake City newspaper. And The Herald has provided that such prizes shall be awarded by the free votes of its patrons. The full list of prizes will be completed early this week, and published in The Herald at that time, together with their full description and actual value.

Where the prizes were purchased, photographic cuts of them, and other important information concerning this remarkable contest, will be regularly published in The Herald. Be sure to watch it for big and interesting developments.

Use the nomination blank below today. It will cost you nothing and you or a friend may win an award worth thousands of dollars. There is all to gain and nothing to lose. Remember, those who win pleasures and profits always grasp opportunities before it is too late. This is your opportunity.

In private homes and hotels last night, as most of Chisholm's population was too excited to seek a place to rest, there were many destitute persons. Many men who were rated as well-to-do are without funds to buy a meal today. In most instances these misfortunes are only temporary, as many will soon receive their insurance money. However, some merchants lost everything that they had except the clothes on their backs and there will be much suffering and financial embarrassment.

APPEAL FOR AID.
Governor Johnson of Minnesota Issues a Proclamation.
St. Paul, Sept. 6.—Governor Johnson today issued the following proclamation:

"A great disaster has come to northern Minnesota, Chisholm, one of the splendid cities of the Mesaba range, has been totally destroyed by a destructive forest fire, which swept over a large portion of St. Louis county. Every home and business house of that community is burned and 6,000 people are suddenly rendered homeless, the property loss amounting to millions of dollars. Early reports indicate also the total destruction of the mining locations of Shenandoah, Hartley and Pillsbury. The total number of people rendered homeless will reach 12,000, and vast tracts of agricultural lands have also been devastated."

Appalling Calamity.
"This disaster without parallel in the history of Minnesota, and in view of the appalling calamity, an appeal is made to the generosity of the people of Minnesota for liberal aid, and owing to the great necessity, we ask that this assistance be as complete as possible."

"To this end I hereby appoint R. D. Haven, A. C. Weiss, Millie Bunnell, A. L. Ordean, A. J. Washburn and H. M. Payton of Duluth and Martin H. Gelsch of Hibbing a general committee to receive and disburse contributions for the relief of the sufferers."

"I also appoint the mayors of the several cities and villages of the state as special commissioners to take charge of the work of organizing in their respective municipalities and to proceed immediately, that the suffering of the afflicted be minimized."

GLARING ERROR CORRECTED.
To The Salt Lake Herald.
May I as one who has attended dozens of Elsteddofdan in Wales, also one or two in this country, correct a glaring mistake in regard to the Denver chorus in Sunday's issue of The Herald. In it the statement was made that the Denver chorus under Mr. Housley carried off the "grand prize" at the St. Louis exposition, 1904, in the face of several contestants. That statement is false, as the choir under Mr. Housley was not entered for what is called the chief contest, but for what is known in Wales as the "second" choral contest, or in the coming Elsteddofdan to be held in Salt Lake as the minor choral contest. The prize for this in the St. Louis exposition was $1,000, but the "grand prize," $5,000, for choirs of 150 to 200 voices, was awarded to what is without a shadow of a doubt the finest choral society in America today, namely, the famous Scranton Glee Club, of Scranton, Pa., which is a choral society of Welsh-American choir halling from the mining regions of Pennsylvania. Hoping the readers of The Herald will be able to publish the same, as the statement in Sunday's issue, while being in a sense true, is not the "whole truth," and oblige. Yours respectfully,

JOHN MORGAN.
